Nobuo Uematsu / arr. by Arnold Morrison for a while, I've been searching through the dark, For traces of the love you left inside my lonely heart, To weave while picking up the pieces that remain, Melo dies of life, love's lost refrain.

Our paths they did cross, though I see the cannot say just why. We met, we laughed, we held on fast and bird as it flies by. Glicling through the shadows of the then we said goodbye. And I've who will hear the echoes of clouds up in the sky. I've laid my memories and stories never told? Let them ring now and see what to dreams upon those wings. Leave them unfold, in your dearest they unfold. In my dearest

In your dearest
